

The company Rimini Fiera spa entrusted Club Arti & Mestieri with the task to technically supervise the Pastry Forum and coordinate some very nice events increasing the value of the confectionery sector: Delicious&Famous and Saint Valentine's Cake Contest. The Delicious&Famous event was attended by academy and club pastry chefs, Miss Italia models who wore sugar, chocolate and marzipan accessories reminding cult objects of the made in Italy fashion. A great opening of the Pastry Forum which took place as usual thanks to the participation of academic pastry chefs and on-the-job training young people. The Saint Valentine's cake contest was somewhat bright and bubbly, young and innovative, in short, a touch of simplicity and sympathy. The contest was won by Salvatore Mancuso with the cake "C'è posta per te" ("There is a letter for you"). It is necessary to thank all the staff of Club Arti & Mestieri who contributed to the great realization of the 2 forums (bread and pastry): about thirty professionals among whom there were bakers, pastry chefs, cooks and chocolatiers directed by Fausto Rivola, a great creator and passionate professional. Moreover, particular thanks go to all foreigners involved in the events, about seventy people who worked hard and made Sigep a place of great interest. Best wishes to the young people who worked during these events in the hope that they can appreciate the richness they received by professionals.

Vittorio Santoro, manager of Castalimenti and Fausto Rivola.

Judith Zer-Aviv, Israeli pastry chef, member of the Club with Gloria Bellicchi, Miss Italia 1998.

C'è posta per te - There is a letter for you

